(IFQP) – ISLAMIC FINANCE QUALIFICATION PROGRAM. CODE – BC/IFQP

Overall Course Objective

The Islamic Finance Qualification is based on the Islamic banking and its financial system which is a form of ethical-based finance and banking activities Islamic banking and its financial system is a form of ethical-based finance and banking activities that depend on Sharia'a rules and principles, applicable to finance and investments.

Therefore, those who wish to be involved in banking through Islamic finance need to have knowledge of those rules and principles of Sharia'a.

Islamic finance has had a rapid and continuous growth worldwide, despite the financial crisis of 2008, and has gained attention from international financial institutions, such as the International Monetary Fund (IMF) and the World Bank. Islamic finance has also penetrated international markets and banks.

The rapid evolution of Islamic finance has led to the emergence of experts with a strong foundation and core understanding of Islamic finance and its products in both a theoretical and practical framework.

Advisory Council for Islamic Finance

The IFQ was initiated by the Banque du Liban (Bank of Lebanon) and was jointly created by l'Ecole Supérieure des Affaires (ESA) and the CISI. These bodies convened the Advisory Council for Islamic Finance (ACIF), a group of experts, to develop and oversee the qualification.

Who should Study Islamic Finance Qualifications?

The IFQ is appropriate for existing and new employees and those seeking a career in Islamic finance.

The IFQ is a global qualification which covers Islamic finance from both a technical and a Sharia'a Perspective.

The qualification is available worldwide and both the exam and workbook are produced in English, Arabic and French. The IFQ is an industry leading qualification which is supported by the Banque du Liban (Bank of Lebanon).
